

Application for membership in the Industrial Biotechnology Cluster

I hereby apply for membership in the Industrial Biotechnology Cluster.

In the Industrial Biotechnology Cluster, a wide variety of industries find the foundations and ideas for forward-looking developments in the fields of industrial biotechnology and sustainable economy. The members include both - companies and research institutions.

The Industrial Biotechnology Cluster is a project of the IBB Netzwerk GmbH within the framework of the Bavarian Cluster Offensive. The cluster is a community of interests and does not have the status of a legal entity.
