

EU Sustainable Energy Week Session:
CCS and CCU for a climate neutral Europe
20th June 2019, 16.00 – 17.30

AGENDA

1. Welcome and introductory remarks (10 mins)

- Dr. Graeme Sweeney, Chairman of ZEP
- Damien Dallemagne, Secretary General, CO2 Value Europe
- Guloren Turan, General-Manager, Advocacy and Communications, Global CCS Institute

2. Presentations

Chair: Damien Dallemagne, Secretary General, CO2 Value Europe

The role of CCS and CCU in the low-carbon transition of industrial clusters

- The CO2TransPorts PCI project – Tim Bertels/Mark Driessen (tbc), Port of Rotterdam (5 mins)
- CCUS strategy in the Port of Antwerp - Anne-Frédérique Demaerel, Port of Antwerp (7½ mins)
- The Porthos CCS project - Tim Bertels/Mark Driessen (tbc), Port of Rotterdam (7½ mins)

Supporting the energy transition

- Delivering low-carbon natural gas with hydrogen – Gunhild Reigstad, SINTEF and Paula Coussy, IFPEN (10 mins)
- E-fuels and decarbonising transport – tbc, Sunfire (10 mins)

Delivering net-zero emissions in process industries

- CCS and CCU in the cement industry – Rob van der Meer, Director Public Affairs, Heidelberg Cement (15 mins)

3. Panel (20 mins)

Chair: Guloren Turan, General-Manager, Advocacy and Communications, Global CCS Institute

- All speakers to take part
- Q&A with the audience

4. Closing remarks (5 mins)

- Dr. Graeme Sweeney, Chairman of ZEP